Retail Sales Double In El Cajon in Decade

"El Cajon business activity has more than doubled in the last decade," Richard Nevins, Fourth District Member of the State Board of Equalization, declared while on a visit to this area last week.

"A record 122% growth in retail sales has been recorded, from $54 million in 1960 to $120 million in 1969. This growth outpaced the statewide increase of 81% for the same period," Nevins stated. "At the same time the assessed value of El Cajon property increased 56% from $57 million to $89 million.

"During this period of growth, all types of retail stores and all other outlets showed substantial increases. The most notable increases reported were general merchandise stores and eating and drinking places which almost quadrupled, auto dealers and supplies which almost tripled, food stores which more than doubled and building material and farm implements which almost doubled."

Nevins said, "The City of El Cajon shared in this growth with a 106% increase in local revenue from the 1% local sales tax administered by the Board of Equalization. That revenue was $564,000 in the 1959-60 fiscal year and $1.2 million in 1968-69.

"An additional source of revenue for local government was added with the distribution of $201,000 for the 1968-69 fiscal year in cigarette taxes administered by the Board of Equalization."

Nevins continued, "The family purse strings reflected the same trend — a 59% increase in per capita sales from $1,440 to $2,288. A contributing factor was the 40% population rise from 38,000 to 53,000.

How to Read a Financial Report

There's bad news today — but it's buried in governmentese that nearly defies understanding.

Gerald Lonergan, County Auditor and Controller, told the County Board of Supervisors to brace themselves for continuing tax increases for their constituency.

He blamed the coming hikes on "the failure of the State Legislature to enact meaningful tax reform."

That statement, contained in his 1970 Annual Financial Report to the County is part of the bad news — but it directs the blame away from the Board of Supervisors.

"Additional financial participation and alternative cost/revenue sharing methods must be urgently secured if the county is to remain a viable unit of local government," he said.

Boiled down, it means, "we got to find a pigeon other than the homeowner."

"We are currently caught in the spiral of inflation and rapidly rising local share of costs for mandated public assistance and criminal justice programs. Counties find themselves increasingly tangled in a web of judicial rulings which both broaden program scope and liberalize eligibility requirements while State and Federal agencies attempt to place primary burden for fiscal consequences upon local property taxpayers," Lonergan said.

What he means is that courts are giving it away like it's going out of style to welfare riders and criminals while the legislature and congress let the bill for these schemes go to the honest, industrious guy who is a solid homeowner.

"Further," he said, State and Federal agencies are not paying their bills to the County on time and as of June 30, 1970, they owed the County $7,686,000."

You've got to pay your tax bills on time but the government is a deadbeat, he implies.

The Auditor says the "County is suing the State of California to protect County taxpayers from retroactive Medi-Cal charges going back to March, 1966 and totalling $3,376,000. The financial statement does not reflect the liability for this amount because of the remoteness of the possibility of the State being able to sustain its position which is in direct conflict with pertinent statutory provisions."

That says, more simply put, that the State wants taxpayers to pony up $2 1/3 millions additionally for Medi-Cal but he isn't going to pay it unless the courts force him to.

"As a result of failure of State Government to assume and finance its proper share of mandated programs (principally welfare) and federal court rulings which eliminated residency eligibility requirements for aid, significant cost overruns resulted in the County budget (which caused) the combined available fund balance for such programs to decrease nearly 50%," he complained.

The courts, state and federal governments have just about got the county budget cupboard bare, is what he means.

Well that's it. Drained of governmental gobbledygook it better explains the coming tax crisis. It also explains that the supervisors are not the bad guys all the time.

But they certainly are the victims.

Second only to the innocent taxpayer.

Planners OK 901 Units For Rancho San Diego

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A 901-unit Planned Residential Development (PRD) was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission for the Associated Land Company, developers of Rancho San Diego.

Also approved was a subdivision map encompassing the same 222 acres on which 1,502 dwelling units are proposed.

The week before, the commission had approved rezones in the area which would substantially reduce the possible population density.

The rezones go automatically to the Board of Supervisors and the PRD could be appealed to the board as there are protestants of record.

Only brief opposition statements were made at either meeting, indicating either a lessening of the opposition, or perhaps a determination to take the main effort before the supervisors.

The planning staff recommended approval of the special use permit for the PRD.

Some of the wording was "superior to a conventional subdivision" . . . "compatible with existing low density residential growth in the area."

New Construction At North and Main

Work started this week on an office-warehouse development at the southwest corner of Main and North streets.

Robert Fergen, a local builder at 3568 Main st., is the developer.

New construction will cover an area 40 by 128 feet and 14 parking spaces will be provided. The corner property is approximately 150 by 175 feet. Fergen Co. occupies an existing building. The rest of the property will be developed later, a firm member said.

The new Highway 94-Imperial ave. off-ramp will pass touch the Main-North intersection when it is constructed next year.

Five Trips Planned For Whale Watchers To Baja California

The San Diego Natural History Museum — "the Museum that Watches Whales" — has planned five whale-watching trips into the waters of Baja California in January, February, and March of 1971, its director, Dr. William Burns, announced last week.

Last year, as part of a seminar on Lower California, the museum sponsored a trip to Scammon's Lagoon and some thirty ecstatic members of the seminar were able to observe the California Gray Whale in its gathering place, in Scammon's Lagoon. Demand for a repeat voyage led to the five trips scheduled for next year.

The cruises, sponsored by the Natural History Museum under the leadership of Dr. Raymond M. Gilmore, one of the world's experts on marine mammals, especially the California Gray Whale, will leave San Diego on a Sunday morning and return the following Saturday noon.

These scientific expeditions sail down the coast of California, and head for the vicinity of the Guadalupe island area where enormous elephant seals, sea lions, and hundreds of thousands of sea birds will be observed.

Dr. Joseph R. Jehl, Jr. will act as guide for the bird watchers, with Monte Kirven, chairman of Educational Activities at the Museum, taking one of the voyages as bird guide.

From the Guadalupe area, the ship will enter Scammon's Lagoon where at least 4,000 California Gray Whales will be in the midst of courting, taking care of baby Gray Whales in the nurseries, blowing, surfacing, fluking, and cavorting in the manner of Gray Whales.

Small groups of passengers will be taken by skiff to move gently and softly among the whales so as not to disturb them or their activities. The small boats are able to come as close as fifteen feet from a Gray Whale, giving the passenger a priceless opportunity to take almost unbelievable photographs.

Two ships are being used for the whale-watching expeditions — the H&M 85 and the Qualifier 105. The schedule of trips is as follows:

Leave San Diego January 17, 1971, return noon, January 23.

Leave San Diego January 29, return February 6.

Leave San Diego February 14, return February 20.

Leave San Diego February 28, return March 6.

Leave San Diego March 14, return March 20.

Lectures On Stars Planned At Southwestern

The Southwestern College Planetarium has begun the 1970-71 series of free public lectures with "The Message of Starlight" scheduled at 7:30 p.m. each Thursday in October. The topic deals with starlight and how astronomers learn about celestial objects by studying the light sent to the earth from the stars.

During the month of November, two special lectures will be given, the first deals with "Man's Mission in Space" and the second is "Man's Mission on Earth." Following the second special presentation, a repeat of the popular "Star of Bethlehem" lecture will be given through December 17. The actual positions of the stars and planets will be recreated in the Star Chamber for the Christmas show.

In January of 1971, the topic will be "The Sun" and will cover the story of energy transfers in the sun and other celestial bodies. The February lectures will be "The Planets" and our present and future probes will be discussed.

Fire Group Gives Praise To Press And Public

The Heartland Mutual Aid Zone Fire Chiefs Association praised citizens, the press, and firemen for "excellent cooperation" during last week's fires.

The group includes Fire Chiefs Harold Hensley of Lemon Grove and Frank Berger of Spring Valley, plus chiefs of La Mesa, Lakeside, Santee and El Cajon.

Zone Chief Robert O. Sever, of La Mesa, in a bulletin issued this week, praised the press for accurate and up-to-date reporting without disturbing any firefighting operations.

He also noted volunteers offered food and services, transportation and housing in quantities that was "fantastic."

Other commendations by the organization included:

Youngsters, some with long hair, wearing headbands and beads, who volunteered aid;

The success of the newly installed Fire Radio Network and the recently developed Mutual Aid Plan which became the backbone of the firefighting effort;

The public officials who collaborated with the development of the radio and mutual aid development;

The effectiveness of various task forces, particularly in the Heartland Zone where loss of life and property was kept at a minimum;

The probability that County Government would take strong action to correct deficiencies in some areas where lack of equipment, and trained personnel exist and where poor water supply is a problem;

The proof that fire fighters would stay on the job until the fire was out and the pride each chief has in the job his men did.

The report also noted that other communities sent men and equipment to take part under the local command. Some taking part were Corona, Riverside, Calipatria, Lake Arrowhead, San Bernardino, Huntington Beach, El Centro, Fresno, Imperial and Riverside Counties, Brawley, Calexico, Norco, Placentia, Running Springs and Crest Forest Districts, Chino, Orange County, Anaheim, Orange, Garden Grove, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Porterville and others. These were in addition to County, State and Federal assistance, and other communities within the County.

Bavasi's To Head Christmas Seal Campaign

Buzzie Bavasi, president of the San Diego Padres, and his wife, Evit, will serve as co-chairmen of the 1970 Christmas Seal Campaign in San Diego and Imperial counties.

Local efforts will be part of the 64th national fund raising drive of the National Tuberculosis & Respiratory Disease Assn., according to Dr. Simon C. Brumbaugh, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley chairman of the Tuberculosis & Health Assn. of San Diego & Imperial Counties.

Campaign contributions in the two counties support local professional and public education, research, and program activities directed against TB, other respiratory diseases, and air pollution.

At state and national levels these contributions finance additional research and development of tools for use of local anti-TB organizations.

Bavasi, a graduate of De Pauw University, has been in professional baseball since 1939, when he became a member of the office staff of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

In 1951 he was name vice president and general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers. During his years with the Dodgers, Bavasi won eight National League pennants and four world championships.

In the Fall of 1968 he successfully sought a major league franchise for San Diego and moved to the city to head the Padres.

The Bavasi's have four sons: Peter, 26, director of minor league operations of the Padres; Christopher, 22; Robert, 15; and Bill, 11.

58 High School Gals Meet Mother Goose Qualifications

Between rain drops and admonitions to "smile now," the 58 high school girls who qualified for the semi-final round of the Mother Goose Princess contest chatted animatedly.

Having sold 35 Mother Goose Parade stickers, the girls became eligible to continue in the competition for the shining crown. Picture taking was the order of the day, following a meeting where Thomas Murphy, contest chairman, gave instructions for the second round of the contest.

Until October 24, the girls from Grossmont Union High School District will continue selling stickers and also Parade Association memberships to earn points. High point girls — the top twelve — will be named to the Royal Court. From among this group, outside Judges will select the Princess and her Maid of Honor.

Seals and memberships may be purchased by anyone in San Diego County — or anywhere in the country for that matter. The contestants help to make the parade possible by promotion and fund raising.

All girls who qualified were awarded silver Mother Goose charms. El Cajon High School had the greatest number of qualifiers with 17; Granite Hills, 10; Santana, 7; Mt. Miguel, 6; Grossmont and Monte Vista, 5 each; and El Capitan and Helix, 4 each.

Sign Request Rejected Again

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A second attempt by Sofa Center, Inc., Lemon Grove, to get a freeway-visible sign was turned down Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The sign, 12 by 14 feet, reads merely SOFA CENTER. However, as the Sofa Center fronts on Federal blvd. in the 6600 block in the light industrial M zone, signs are supposed to be limited to local identification.

First, the corporation tried to get a height variation to 57 feet for freeway visibility and this was denied by the commission. The M zone has a height limit of 35 feet.

Friday's move was to ask for a reduction of rear yard setback from 15 to zero feet.

Sign setback changes are normally acceptable to the commission if there have been others granted in the vicinity and are not considered particularly objectionable.

Except in this case. Because of the configuration of the land, a 35-foot sign at zero setback would have been about 70 feet above Federal blvd.

The rear portion of the property rises sharply to the freeway right of way boundary — about 35 feet from the rest of the Sofa Center land level. Thirty-five feet and 35 feet are 70.

Navy Stops Fire Fighting At Miramar

In an effort to reduce air pollution the Naval Air Station at Miramar last week ceased its firefighting training program for shipboard sailors.

Firefighting training was conducted for squadron personnel prior to departure for overseas deployments. A total of 11,127 navymen were trained over the past 2 1/2 years. As of today, trainees will be consolidated into the regularly scheduled classes now underway at the Fleet Training Center, Naval Station.

The shift will not increase the number of daily classes now operative to meet fleet demands.

Earlier, the Naval Air Station at North Island stopped similar training as a means to curb air pollution in San Diego.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

A friend told me that "caballo" means "horse" and "zapato" means "shoe." He said that the two words together should mean "horseshoe." Would you please comment on his interpretation?

He is partly right. "Caballo" is the right word for "horse." "Zapato" is translated "shoe." However the two together do not mean "horseshoe."

Joining simple words together to construct a compound word does not always work from one language to another. In Spanish "herrar" means "to garnish with irons" or "to shoe horses." "Dura" means "hard." Thus "herradura" is the joining of two Spanish words which mean "horseshoe."

"Water" and "melon" represent another case in which simple words are joined together to form a compound word, "watermelon." In translation "agua" means "water" and "melon" is spelled the same in both languages. However, they may not be joined together to form "aguamelon" for "watermelon." What works in one language does not always work in the other. "Sandia" (sahn-DEE-ah) is the correct way to say "watermelon."

"Fiestas" means "parties" and "agua" means "water." When joined together as "aguafiestas" the meaning is "wet blanket" or "kill-joy" which seems to have no relation to the original single words. In this example it looks like "aguafiestas" should be translated to "water parties" but the cultural use of the word came to be used as "one who throws water on a party" or what we call in English a "wet blanket."

Phrases listed below reflect some of the variable usages of words discussed above. You may wish to practice saying them with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Que caballo!" (keh kah-BAH-yoh)
for "What a horse!"
Say "Son zapatos." (sohn sah-PAH-tohs)
for "They are shoes."
Say "Son herraduras." (sohn eh-rah-DOO-rah)
for "They are horseshoes."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "No sea aguafiestas." (noh seh-ah Ah-goo-ah-fee-EHS-tahs)
for "Don't be a kill-joy."
Say "Le gusta la sandia?" (leh GOOS-tah lah sahn-DEE-ah)
for "Do you like the watermelon?"
Say "Vamos a la fiesta." (VAH-mohs ah lah fee-EHS-tah) for "Let go to the party."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Juega usted herraduras?" (who-EH-gah oo-STEHD eh-rah-DOO-rah)
for "Do you play horse shoes?"
Say "A veces." (ah VEH-sehs) for "Sometimes."

Spring Valley Kiwanis, Kiwanian-annes Install New Officers At Ox Bow Inn

For the second year, the officers of the Spring Valley Kiwanian-annes was installed by installing officer, G. Frank Berger. The ceremony took place last Wednesday at the Ox Bow Inn, immediately following the installation of new officers for Kiwanis.

Williams pointed out that 73 per cent of the members, during 1970 had perfect attendance.

One of the highlights of the evening, was the presentation of the perpetual trophy to the Kiwanian member, judged to be the Kiwanian of the Year. He was Dr. Tom Webster, and was so named because of his

Medical Consent Cards To Be Brought Home By School Children

School children will be bringing home registration cards for the Grossmont Hospital Auxiliary sponsored Minor Consent Form program, next week.

Parents are invited to list the names and addresses of three personal friends, neighbors, or relatives who are willing to be called for consent to emergency treatment in the event the parents cannot be located.

The cards will also contain the name of the family physician and any pertinent physical information that might be needed by an attending physician.

In the special Minor Consent Form office, near the hospital emergency room and switchboard, a large committee will sort and file the cards.

This committee will work daily to keep up with the steady flow of cards from the schools and hopes to have the system ready for use by early next month, according to Mrs. Irving Passarino and her committee of twenty volunteers.

Preschool children may be registered by obtaining extra cards from the school or from the Grossmont Hospital reception desk. About 65,000 children are expected to be registered.

The law requires that consent be given for treatment of a minor, and some frightening experiences have occurred when by some fluke neither parent could be located immediately.

After a trial run of one year, hopefully the program will be expanded throughout San Diego County with the help of the local Hospital Auxiliary Council of twenty auxiliaries.

Club Week Planned At Helix High

Helix High School will hold its 19th annual Club Week from October 17 to October 23.

The purpose of Club Week is to acquaint and involve as many students as possible with the 22 various clubs on the Helix campus.

The theme of this year's Club Week is "If Not Now, When?" The theme stresses student participation in school activities and encourages the growth of more clubs on the campus.

The ASB at Helix will have information booths set up at the student lunch hour to answer questions concerning certain clubs or how to start new clubs.

"Many students find after joining a club that they are enjoying themselves while at the same time getting involved," Jeff Jones, Attorney General at Helix, said.

Helix High Library Has New Sculpture Posters

The Helix High School Library Club has presented the school library a poster display of sculptures by Arnaldo Pomodoro, a Milanese sculptor.

Pomodoro's works are currently on display at the Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego, Balboa Park.

The exhibit in the Helix library features Pomodoro's monuments of metallic columns, balls of bronze, wheels, cubes, amalgamated spheres, casts of lead and bars on panels. Pomodoro's works are unique because of their large size, Robert Freeland, Helix librarian, said.

Dr. William B. Walsh, founder and President of Project HOPE, is a veteran of World War II and first conceived the idea of a peacetime hospital ship when he served in the South Pacific as Medical Officer aboard a destroyer.

UNITED — Miss Debbie Kaye Belt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Belt, of 4032 Rogers rd., Spring Valley, was wed to David E. Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiley, of 3959 Rogers rd., Spring Valley, in a 2 p.m. ceremony September 5 at Lemon Grove Methodist Church.

The newlyweds will reside in San Diego.

Summer School Successful According To Board Report

More than 9,000 Grossmont High School District students participated in the District's highly successful seven-week summer school program this year according to a report presented to the Governing Board this week.

Dr. John Barrons, Assistant Superintendent, Educational

Operations, noted that over 100 different courses were offered with U. S. History, civics, biology, and driver education the most popular.

"Completion of these required courses during summer school permits a student to participate in other courses or activities during the regular year," said Barrons.

"In addition, there were a variety of special interest courses which were particularly popular this summer and included, 'Summer with Shakespeare' at Granite Hills High School, oceanography at Helix and Mt. Miguel High Schools, astronomy at El Capitan High School and archeology at Monte Vista and Mt. Miguel," Barrons continued.

About 57% of the regular students attend summer school and according to Barrons, "The program continues to receive high praise from students and faculty alike."

Barrons complimented the Governing Board on its general support of the summer school program including the addition of a full-time counselor for each summer school for 1971 and indicated that "summer school in reality is leading into year-round school operation."

L.G. Association Sets Membership Meeting

The Lemon Grove Association, formed by a group of interested citizens for the purpose of initiating humanizing projects, will have a general membership meeting Wednesday, Oct. 14 at Golden Avenue School at 7:30 p.m.

The group, at this meeting, will discuss the summer project of the "drop in" project at the Lemon Grove Youth Center.

New executive board members will be elected and plans will be made for the coming year.

Meeting is open to all interested members of the community and memberships are being accepted from Lemon Grove residents at $1 per person and $2 per family.

Local Bands Plan To Compete In Festival

Thirteen high school bands including Helix, Monte Vista, and Mount Miguel, have signed up for the annual "Fallbrook Festival of Bands" to be held Saturday in Fallbrook.

The band festival originally was part of the Fallbrook Avocado festival and parade, dropped this year due to lack of community support.

Sponsors for this year's festival will be the Fallbrook High School Band Boosters Club. The club will also provide soft drinks and a snack bar at the beginning and end of the parade route. Forrest Mayes is Booster Club president and Darrell Graves is parade chairman.

Bands will be judged according to musical ability, marching, maneuvering and showmanship. They will be judged by accredited judges from the Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association and can amass 400 points in the four areas.

Official score sheets will be used and results of these scores are highly valuable in evaluating improvement areas for individual bands.

The competition will give band entrants a last chance to perfect their marching and playing skills before appearing in the band review sponsored by the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce Oct. 24 which determines which high school band participates in the Rose Parade in Pasadena New Year's Day.

Nine trophies will be awarded with sweepstake trophies for the best band and the best drill team.

Panel To View 'Disadvantaged' School Programs

Heartland Human Relations Association is sponsoring a panel discussion on "Heartland Educational Programs for the Disadvantaged" at Grossmont College in the Student Center Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Parking is available only in the visitors lot. No fee will be charged.

The panel will be composed of program directors from several area school districts including Dr. Robert Bunting of Grossmont, Elvin Fong of La Mesa-Spring Valley, Harrison Hall of Grossmont College, Paul Nelson, El Cajon and Dr. Robert Sutton of Lemon Grove. The moderator will be Dr. Donald Lindgren, Associate Professor of Marketing at San Diego State and Head of the Marketing Department there.

The panel will present an overview of such programs as Head Start, Compensatory Education, the Bi-Lingual Program, programs with and for the Indians.

College Opens Special Naturalist Exhibitions

Grossmont College opened a Smithsonian Institute Traveling Exhibition titled "Synchronies" this week in the Student Center. A collection of color photographs produced by Dr. Oscar Forel, naturalist, psychiatrist and writer, they were photographed in England, Canada, Switzerland, Ceylon, Finland, Jamaica, Morocco as well as the United States.

Dr. Forel produces images of nature which by the art of combination, sureness of touch and singularity of color resemble paintings rather than photographs. He exposes various unobserved parts of the natural world, presenting his subjects beautifully even though they were not conceived to be beautiful.

In viewing his work one can discover wonders of these hidden elements: shreds of rinds, moss, lichens, moldiness, and drops of resin.

The term "Synchronies" evokes harmony of color as a symphony evokes harmony of sound. This display of nature without alteration, artifice or disguise leads the viewer through the mysteries of life, making him more attentive and inquisitive.

The public is invited to view this outstanding collection of color photographs depicting nature as only a naturalist can see it. Viewing hours are from 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. in the Student Center through October 16.

Hill at Thunderbird

Robert C. Hill, son of Mrs. F. L. Hill, of Lemon Grove, has enrolled in the September 1970 class at Thunderbird Graduate School of International Management, Phoenix.

He is a graduate of San Diego State College, where he majored in Political Science.

THE GROSSMONT College library was recently presented with over $100 worth of books by Accent International. Ellsworth Nephstead, left, president of the Food Service Executives Association of San Diego County makes the presentation for the donors, and reference librarian Mrs. Beverly Johnson and Food Service Management student Ron Boyce, accept the books for the college. The books, selected by William Cheesman, Food Services Director at Grossmont College, will be available as resource and reference books for students in the Food Services Management program.

Mount Miguel ROTC Program Undergoes Changes This Year

The new program, has the authority to nominate 3 senior cadets for West Point.

Sergeant Geoffrey Adams said that the program, "provides very meaningful training to students which will be of value in their development of effective leadership. In addition, constant effort is made in preparing the student for his future role of responsible citizen."

He added, "Although the curriculum includes subjects designed to develop an appreciation of the nation's defense forces, the primary purpose of the course is the stimulation of self-reliance in that student and responsiveness to constituted authority. Cadets are expected to display attributes of good citizenship and patriotism."

Helix Hosts Brazilian As AFS Student

Carmen Carpanedo from Brazil is Helix High School's American Field Service Student for 1970-71.

Carmen arrived in the United States on August 14. She spent three days touring New York, and visiting Hofstra University there. Then Carmen flew to San Diego where she first met her American family, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kost and their daughter Sue, of 7118 Stanford ave., La Mesa. Carmen will spend 11 months with the Kosts.

Carmen's home in Brazil is in the town of Esperito Santo, which is approximately 350 miles from Rio de Janeiro and 100 miles from the east coast of Brazil. Her native language is Portuguese, but has had four years of English and is rapidly learning more.

After her stay at Helix where she is attending senior classes, Carmen plans to return to Brazil and attend college there.

Girls Aid Fire Victims

The Girls' League at Grossmont Continuation high school is collecting food, clothing and household items for students, past and present, whose homes were destroyed by fire recently.

Small items will be picked up by girls going door-to-door. Each girl will have a letter of identification. Larger items, to be delivered, may be dropped at the quonset huts at 8925 Cuyamaca st., Santee week days from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Comedy Set For Tonight

Grossmont College will present Sidney Lumet's far-out comedy "Bye Bye Braverman" at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the Fine Arts Lecture hall.

Lumet's twelfth motion picture in ten years is a break from his norm, a high comedy, a dissection of the malicious, striving, narcissistic intellectual-literary set of Greenwich Village.

Starring George Segal, Godfrey Cambridge, Alan King, Jessica Walter, and Phyllis Newman, the film is basically a plot of classic simplicity. A successful author, Braverman, has died abruptly and his nearest and dearest go to attend the funeral. How most of them never got there — and why not — is revealed in a series of high-style sequences.

The price of admission is 50 cents with tickets available at the door. A special series ticket for five outstanding comedies may be purchased for $2.

Scotties Shock Matadors; Monte Vista Wins Opener

Highlanders Crush Miguel, 24-31 In Curtain Raiser

The Helix Highlanders, "up" for one of the stiffest rivalries in the Grossmont League, caught the Mount Miguel Matadors with their pants down last Friday afternoon, and scored a stunning 24-31 upset over them in cross country action.

Rockets Test Lakers In Pre-season Tonight

The San Diego Rockets make their pre-season debut tonight in the feature game of the annual Rocket Classic at the San Diego Sports Arena.

Coach Alex Hannum's Rockets will battle the Los Angeles Lakers in the afterpiece of the pre-season doubleheader which will pit the San Francisco Warriors and Phoenix Suns in the 6:30 p.m. opener.

Following Thursday's game, the Rockets close out pre-season action Saturday at Ocean-side High gym against the SuperSonics in an 8 p.m. affair with proceeds going to youth activities in the Oceanside area.

Hannum will be sending his squad against a Laker team which is picked to win the NBA's Pacific Division this coming season.

A trio of super-stars are expected to lead the Laker attack, including 7-2 center Wilt Chamberlain, forward Elgin Baylor and NBA scoring champion Jerry West.

The Matadors, running on their own 1.9-mile course, watched Helix High's ace distance runner, Ed Mendoza, as he opened a big lead after the first mile and limped to victory in 9:04.

Mendoza has had leg problems, and was able to work out for the meet for only a few days.

Mount Miguel's Joe Stubbs, considered by many as the only man in the league who could come close to Mendoza, this season, could do no better than third, and Bob Morrison, still suffering from a turned ankle, finished a disappointing eighth.

The Helix runners took first, second, and fourth in the affair, and got a surprisingly fine performance from sophomore Joe Badger, who ran sixth in 9:24.

The Matadors got a good performance from Jimmy Jones, who managed fifth, but senior John Heimaster turned in a poor effort, getting ninth place.

Mount Miguel will have an easier time of it tomorrow, as the team invades El Cajon. Helix travels to El Capitan.

Monte Vista Belts Eagles In CC Action

By Bob Dolloff

Spurred by the running of Tom Lux, Monte Vista pinned the visiting Granite Hills Eagles with a resounding 17-44 loss in Friday's Grossmont League cross country action.

Lux, Rick Duenez, and Gary Close finished 1-2-3, as the Monarchs swept four of the first five places.

Lux finished with a time of 9:59, 17 seconds ahead of Duenez, and nineteen ahead of third place finisher Close. Granite Hills' Dan Cummings came in fourth with a time of 10:26, and Tom Sims of Monte Vista came in at 10:32, good for fifth place.

The win for Monte Vista left the Monarchs in a tie for first place, with three other teams, including Helix, who upset favorite Mount Miguel.

With Mount Miguel getting off to a poor start, Monte Vista will be rated as co-favorites with Helix for the title. The Monarchs must still beat Helix and Miguel, however, and the Highlanders have a tough runner in Ed Mendoza.

Tomorrow, the Monarch harriers come up against a so-so Grossmont team at Grossmont High.

Padres Manager Sees Steady Improvement

SAN DIEGO — The manager, who will be the manager next season, measures the concluded season in countless little steps that all are headed in the right direction.

"I was hoping for 70 victories," said Preston Gomez, "and we finished with 63. That's 11 more than we won in 1969 and what is more important to me, the players improved themselves and their team even more than they did their record."

Gomez, 47, is the only manager the two-year-old Padres ever had. And general manager Eddie Leishman announced to a press conference at the end of the season that Preston and his coaching staff will return next year.

"The club showed a lot of progress this season," Preston said. "Offensively, we were greatly improved. And there was a lot accomplished with the pitching staff as well."

"These players are going to improve even more next year and there's no telling what they might be capable of doing."

"All I know is that somebody real soon is going to have a lot of fun managing this club. And I just hope it will be me."

The Padres as a team batted .246 for the 1970 season, far better than their .225 club

Highlanders Rip Matadors 41-0 In Loop Opener

By Walt Ekard

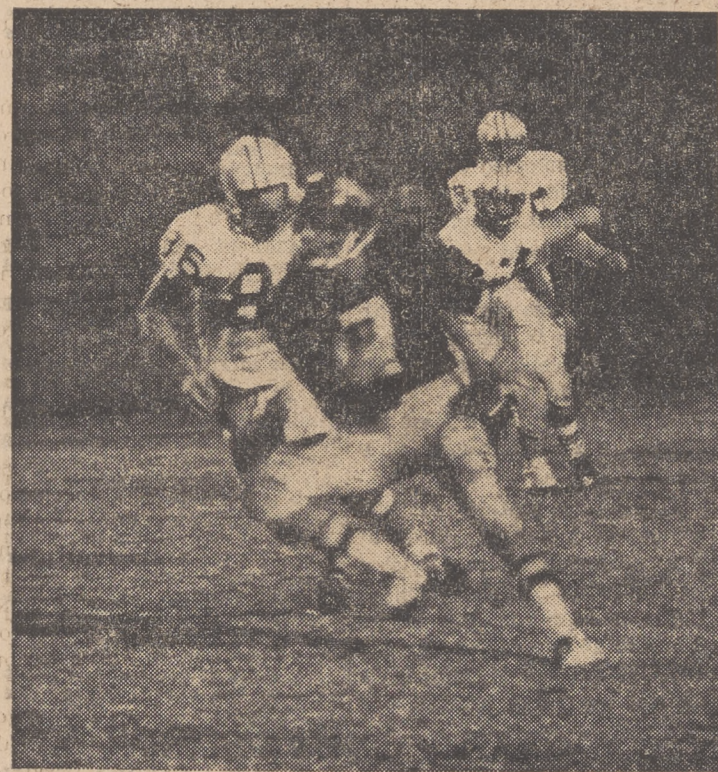

The Helix Highlanders picked up five Mt. Miguel fumbles and raced off with a 41-0 victory before a huge opening night crowd at Mt. Miguel, last Friday night.

Mt. Miguel got the first break of the game by recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff, but junior wingback Dave Rower fumbled moments later and Helix capitalized with a score.

Helix led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter, and 28-0 at halftime.

Mistakes seem to have become a habit with the Matadors, as two fumbles by Rower and Kevin Pullen and one by Ken Brean stalled Mt. Miguel drives. The Matadors have now lost the ball sixteen times on nine interceptions and seven fumbles in their last three games.

The Matadors offensive line seems to be improving and safety Jim Reese has done an excellent job, according to coach Ben Cipriani. Regular quarterback Tim Miller, who was injured in a pre-season scrimmage, may be back in two weeks.

UPFIELD — Monte Vista running back Rick Weathers (7) turns upfield in an effort to pick up yardage against Granite Hills in game last Friday night.

Eagles Dump Monarchs, 13-7 In Grossmont League Opener

Monte Vista, hurt by personal fouls and a persistent Eagle offense, dropped its opening Grossmont League football contest, 13-7 to Granite Hills last Friday night on the losers' field.

Both teams went scoreless in the first quarter, but Granite Hills broke the ice with a second period tally. The Eagles, who had failed to hit the end zone from inside the Monarch five-yard stripe in the first period, made the tally to cap a 50-yard drive. When the extra point was added, the Eagles led, 7-0.

The Eagles continued to dominate the game in the third period, although a 40-yard romp by Richard Candy and a personal foul penalty failed to help them score in their first drive. Later in the period, however, Granite Hills returned a Monarch punt to the Monte Vista 24-yard line, and drove in for the touchdown a few plays later.

It was Candy who got the call from the one-yard line to carry it in for the score. The kick failed, but Granite Hills led, 13-0.

The Monarchs came alive in the final period, as sophomore quarterback Art Spahr piloted a scoring march early in the period with the help of running backs Rick Weathers and Tony Harper.

In the drive, Spahr threw two clutch passes, one for a touchdown on fourth down. After making a clutch first down on a quarterback sneak, Spahr was stalled for a couple of plays before tossing the scoring aerial.

Trailing by six in the waning seconds, Spahr, who threw ten passes in the contest, went to the air with the long bomb. Although the Monarchs were moving the ball, the gun sounded as a Spahr bomb fell incomplete, intended for Rick Weathers.

Statistically speaking the Monarchs controlled the airways, and the Eagles had the ground exclusively to themselves. Monte Vista was five for ten in the air, for 54 yards and a score, while the Eagles managed only one completion in two tries for two yards.

On the ground however, the Granite Hills team amassed 176 yards to the Monarchs' 82. Monte Vista will move on to Helix High tomorrow night, to take on the Grossmont Foothillers. The 'Hillers are favorites to take the league title this year, and the Monarchs would love nothing more than to pull off an upset.

PENALTY SHOT — Linc Szuch, captain of Mount Miguel High School's water polo team, fires a penalty shot in action last Friday at Gunther Pool. Szuch missed the shot, and his team fell to Monte Vista, 7-5.

Miguel Drops Two Water Polo Meets

The Mount Miguel water polo team lost to Monte Vista last Friday afternoon, 7-5, and lost to Vista on Tuesday, 12-3, despite great efforts by Linc Szuch and Dave Johnson.

On Friday, the Monarchs broke the game open in the last period to take the contest, and on Tuesday, the tired Matadors couldn't get on the scoreboard enough and had a weak defense.

Dave Johnson picked up three goals for the Miguel team as they swam against Vista, but his teammates were unable to break into the scoring column.

Chargers to Face Packers Monday Night at Stadium

Monday night at 6 o'clock. The San Diego Chargers have a date with Bart Starr, Don Horn and the resurgent Green Bay Packers.

The Packers (2-1) invade San Diego Stadium for the first time to meet the Chargers. (0-2-1) in the nationally televised ABC "Game of the Week." It will be blacked out in San Diego and Los Angeles.

After battling Johnny Unitas, Daryle Lamonica and Roman Gabriel on successive Sundays, the Chargers hope that a Monday night game will bring a change in fortune if not in the caliber of quarterback opposition.

San Diego lost to Units and the Colts, 16-14; tied Lamonica and the Raiders, 27-27, and last Sunday was trounced by Gabriel and the Los Angeles Rams, 37-10, before 68,564 at the L. A. Coliseum.

Against the storied Packers, the Chargers will face pro football's winningest quarterback in Starr, 15-year pro master, and Horn, the exciting heir apparent from San Diego State College.

Starr directed Green Bay to a 13-10 upset over NFL champion Minnesota at Milwaukee last Sunday. A week before, it was Horn who connected with Carroll Dale on an 89-yard touchdown pass to beat Atlanta, 27-24. The impressive victories erased the stigma of a 40-0 opening loss to Detroit and gave credence to the Wisconsin battle-cries, "The Pack is Back."

While Green Bay is advancing, San Diego is regrouping. "We're going to have to make some changes and get things going again," said Charger Coach Charlie Waller after the Ram game. "What we need most of all some healthy running backs and offensive linemen."

With several injured players at those positions, the Chargers were no match for the powerhouse Rams. Quarterbacks John Hadl and Marty Domres were sacked 14 and 7 times and were forced to pass under constant pressure. Still Hadl completed 7 of 14 and Domres 8 of 11. Willie Frazier caught five passes for 63 yards, and the lone S.D. touchdown.

The Chargers can expect a similar pass rush from the Packers, who dropped Minnesota's Gary Cuozzo six times. Green Bay has a pair of mammoth tackles in Rich Moore (6-6, 280) and Mike Mc-Coy (6-5, 284), its highly-touted No. 1 draft choice from Notre Dame, and a trio of outstanding linebackers in Ray Nitschke, Dave Robinson and Fred Carr. Willie Wood wrote the book on how to play free safety.

Green Bay is deep in running backs with Donny Anderson, Travis Williams, Jim Grabowski, Perry Williams and Dave Hampton, the latter who returned a kick 101 yards against Minnesota. Dale heads a corps of good receivers, which includes John Spill, Jack Clancy and John Hilton.

Tennis Tourney Starts Saturday

Dean Martin, Jr., and Ted Fio Rito, Jr., will add a touch of show biz glamour to the 25th annual San Diego Metropolitan Tennis Tournament when it convenes on October 10, 11, 17, and 18 at Morley Field in Balboa Park.

Martin, an entertainer in his own right from Beverly Hills and Fio Rito, one of the famed bandleaders from Los Angeles, will compete in men's singles along with what appears to be an outstanding field.

Entries in that division will also include such standouts as San Diego's John Yeomans, Jerry Van Linge of Venice, Bob Duesler of Costa Mesa, Bob Chappell of Santa Barbara and John Allgood of Garden Grove.

Mary Strutters of La Jolla, women's singles runner-up in 1968, heads a list including Vicki Jensen of San Diego, and Joanne James, a Bishop's School student from Washington State.

Rain Gives Hale A Hand In 1970 Point Standings

Smilin' Ed Hale, of Lemon Grove, a favorite of many fans at Cajon Speedway, received a little help from Mother Nature last week, as rain cancelled the super stock racing program Saturday night.

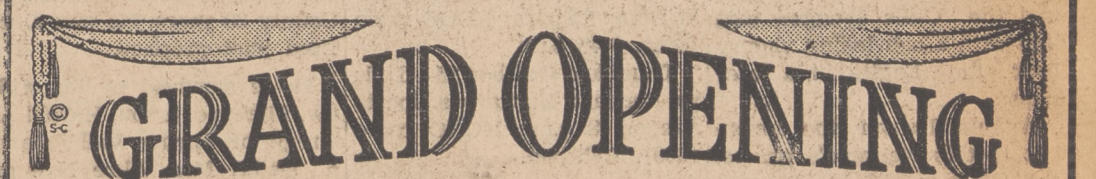

Hale, who leads the point standings by 450 points, will be ready this week end, as he takes on the likes of Russ Bullen, Jim Hitt, and Pat McIntyre.

As the rain stopped racing Saturday night, Bullen, who is in second place, lost a chance to gain ground on Hale. Only two races remain on the season before the October 24 Grand Prix, and no plans have been made to extend the season.

Adding to the action this week end will be the final running of the powder puff derby, as Joy Swentkofske, Diane Porter, and Gloria Stahl, go down to the wire.

Diane Porter leads the standings, with Gloria Stahl second, and Joy Swentkofske third.

Sleeping Beauty To Run Saturdays and Sundays

By Lynn Jones

The Actor's Quarter Children's Theater, 480 Elm Street, San Diego, is presenting an adaptation by Ginger Cody of "Sleeping Beauty." The play can be seen on Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m. through October 25.

"Sleeping Beauty," under the direction of Ginger Cody, is not just primarily a children's play, but can also be enjoyed by the older people as well. It is especially interesting to the children in that they are able to see Princess Beauty in four stages of growing-up.

First you see her as a baby, then at age five, played by Cynthia Villagomez, at age ten, played by Michelle Crump, and at age 16, played by Cricket Cody.

The scenery is simple and doesn't detract from the play. There is only one setting, the Throne Room of the Palace, which is very good. The four ballet sequences are excellent. The choreography, originated by Jeri Kish of the Lemon Grove Ballet Center, is done well by the ballet dancers. The costumes are original and really make the play enjoyable to watch.

The cast consists primarily of teenagers from the Lemon Grove area who are performing for the fun of it and for the experience of performing for an audience. The cast includes: Jacquie Hurtt as the Queen, Rick Luiz as the King, David Lewist as the Jester, Alice Gearhart as Millicent, Mark Crockett, Daniel Cody, Bill Valenzuela, and Tony Wood as the Gods Horace, Montebon, Escobar, and Jordon, respectively, Pam Richardson as Zola the Jewel Fairy, Pamela Brunton as the Black Witch, and Warren Lewis as Prince Charming. The ballet dancers are: Darlene Downer as Night, Cathy Crump as Day, Patricia Law as Spring, Alma Mason as Summer, Denise De Moss as Autumn, and Juanita Harper as Winter.

The acting in the two-act play is fine. Rick Luiz does a good job portraying the silly, not too intelligent King, Jacquie Hurtt, who made her debut at the Actor's Quarter in Cinderella, and Alyce Gearhart, who is making her debut with the together in the first act. Pamela Brunton, who is now playing portrayal of Millicent, do a great job in the scene they have quarrel, does a very good job playing the Black Witch but dual roles in the Adult and Children's Theater at the Actor's does over-do-it a little. She keeps you on your toes whenever she is on stage. The play is done very well.

Blood, Sweat & Tears, a most versatile 9-piece band, will be appearing in concert Sunday, October 11, at 8 p.m. at the San Diego Sports Arena.

The success of this band is undeniable. Each of the members of the group comes from a different school of music — jazz, rock, folk, blues, big bands, soul, psychedelic and country-western. Even though no two pieces are alike, all nine members interlock tightly to form a pattern of rock and jazz intermingled with all technical and emotional tools of music appealing to all age groups.

Blood, Sweat & Tears began four years ago with a hard-driving rhythm and blues kind of music. During these early years the band had inner fighting, with each member having different ideas as to the type of successful music Blood, Sweat & Tears could produce.

In 1968 the present Blood, Sweat & Tears formed with probably their most important acquisition — David Clayton-Thomas, the Canadian born lead singer. His background of mining towns to logging camps is present in his style of singing: he puts his entire being into a performance, effectively demonstrating his dynamic capability to sing a diverse range of material with complete conviction.

Blood, Sweat & Tears has vibrant and appealing music for all with such favorites from their three million-seller albums as "Spinning Wheel," "You've Made Me So Very Happy," and "And When I Die."

Tickets are $4, $4.50, $5, and $6. They will be available at Bill Gamble's Men Stores, Sneaker Inns and the Sports Arena Box Office.

Gulls Open Season Against Denver Friday

DENVER, Colorado — The San Diego Gulls open the 1970-71 Western Hockey League season here with games Friday and Saturday nights against the Denver Spurs.

Following the season-opening set of games, the Gulls will return to San Diego to prepare for their home opener, Thursday night, October 15, against the Portland Buckaroos.

The Gulls completed the professional part of their exhibition schedule with a 3-1-2 record. The only loss was to the Salt Lake Golden Eagles, and the Gulls avenged that loss with a convincing victory over the Eagles in a later game.

Against Denver, the opponent in this weekend's games, the Gulls recorded a 3-2 win and played to a 2-2 tie. The Spurs scored with only seven seconds to play to account for the tie game.

General Manager-Coach Max McNab was happy with the training camp — both with the facilities at Trail and with the players' performances — and singled out winger Willie O'Ree as the camp's "biggest surprise."

McNab still had several player decisions left to make, and expected that he would have things sorted out by the time the team returns to San Diego on Sunday.

The schedule: Friday and Saturday—Gulls at Denver Spurs; KOGO radio (600), 6:45 p.m.

Thursday, October 15—Gulls vs. Portland Buckaroos, Sports Arena, 8 p.m.; KOGO radio (600), 7:45 p.m.

MOVIE MAKERS — A group of about 35 area actors were used last week in a television-designed film which was shot in San Diego. The film is about an ancient Roman physician who is transposed to modern times. Playing the physician is Henry Jones, well-known movie actor, and bicyclist is Dan Cody. Driving the VW is Rick Luiz, and driving the station wagon is David Cody.

IN THIS SCENE, Henry Jones is given assistance after he was injured in traffic. Cars in the scene were from Lemon Grove.

Aztecs Ready For Southern Mississippi

If the South is ever planning to rise again, this weekend will afford as good an opportunity as any.

The reason is simple, San Diego State's Aztecs will be hosting Southern Mississippi in an intersectional struggle this Saturday, October 10, with more riding on the outcome than a win or a loss. Kickoff time is 8 p.m. at San Diego Stadium.

Both teams have a lot going for them at the moment and neither one wants to lose any momentum. The Aztecs of coach Don Coryell are 4-0 this season after stopping BYU last Saturday, 31-11. State has the nation's longest unbeaten string going as SDS has not lost in its last 26 outings. And, whatmore, the Aztecs boast the country's second longest winning streak at 16. Only Texas, 23, has a longer skein going.

Southern Miss is also working on a pretty good string of its own. The Southerners are 3-1 in 1970 and have won seven of their last nine games. Their only loss this season was a 33-14 setback at the hands of rugged Auburn.

There's more on Southern Mississippi's mind than plain old winning. There's also the memory of a 68-7 blasting they received from the Aztecs in 1968.

"There's no question about it," remarks the Aztec's Coryell, "Southern Mississippi will be really after us. They're not about to forget the last time they played us. They beat a pretty good Richmond team last Saturday so they'll be coming in really fired up."

Faulwetter Backs Brink

William C. Faulwetter, elected member of the Grossmont College Board of Trustees, has endorsed the candidacy of Bill Brink, seeking election in the 77th Assembly District.

Faulwetter has agreed, also, to serve on Brink's finance committee. "Bill Brink has an excellent grasp of our education and taxation problems," said Faulwetter. "He has been an excellent President of his local school district board, and has served tirelessly on the Tax Assessment Appeals Board for the County of San Diego."

An attorney-at-law in La Mesa, Faulwetter is the Past-President of the Board of Directors of the Spring Valley Fire District, and served as President of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. Faulwetter is also Zone 3 Commissioner of the San Diego County Flood Control District, which includes Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

The card may be mailed from any post office. Letters are not acceptable and no money should be sent until requested.

"This will be the only public sale of Rose Bowl tickets," said Tournament President A. Lewis Shingler. "The Pacific 8 and Big 10 conference schools selected to play in our New Year's Day game handle the remainder."

Soon after the October 15 deadline, 1,750 cards will be drawn with each winner receiving an application entitling him to purchase two tickets.

Pierson Fetes 25th Year With Bank of America

Eugene W. Pierson, manager of Bank of America's Sweetwater-Jamacha branch in Spring Valley, observed his 25th anniversary with the bank October 3.

Pierson, who joined the bank October 3, 1945 as a teller at the 40th and El Cajon branch in San Diego, has been in his present position since July of this year. Prior to that, he was assistant manager at the La Jolla branch from 1961 to 1967 and assistant manager of the Point Loma branch from 1967 to his move to Spring Valley.

UC San Diego Art Gallery To Open Season

The University of California San Diego Art Gallery will open its 1970-71 season with an exhibition of sixty-one American paintings from the Bocour Artist Colors Collection. The exhibition will run from October 12 through November 1. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Sunday 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Wednesday from 8 - 10 p.m.

Selected by Leonard Bocour, the exhibition is circulating under the auspices of the American Federation of Arts. Bocour, artist, teacher and color technician, has been a collector of art for over thirty years. The Collection was born accidentally during the Depression when artists exchanged their paintings for tubes of Bocour paint.

The Collection, formed by what Bocour calls "The Bocour Bredline" — artists coming in to ask for paint, is entirely the result of gifts and exchanging paint for pictures.

Consequently, the Collection now numbers more than 400 paintings which include most of the top names in the American art world such as Helen Frankenthaler, Philip Guston, Jack Levine, Jules Olitski and Moses and Raphael Soyer.

Three LNG Stations Now In Operation

Three liquefied natural gas service stations — believed to be the first in the world — are now in operation in San Diego.

The stations were designed and constructed by the San Diego Gas & Electric Company to serve an "LNG Polar Bear Fleet" of 70 vehicles that were converted to operate on super-cold, clean burning LNG to combat smog.

LNG is a liquid form of the same kind of gas that is used for cooking, heating and lighting. The gas is changed to a liquid by reducing its temperature to minus 258 degrees Fahrenheit. Liquefaction reduces the gas volume by a ratio of 600 to 1.

The service stations for this cryogenic fuel are located at the California State Division of Highways motor pool, at the world-famous San Diego Zoo and at one of the San Diego Gas & Electric Company's district operating centers.

Reorganization Saves Tax Dollars At County Public Works Agency

In 1850 when the County of San Diego was created, 156 voters elected the first 11 County officials.

In 1970 there are 190 heavy equipment operators and 2,025 County vehicles and pieces of construction equipment - rolling stock which cost about $6.8 million dollars.

Better management of that expensive equipment and its skilled operators is one of the tax saving dividends now evident from a management innovation, the Public Works Agency, reorganized as of July 1, 1970.

The Public Works Agency groups under Administrator D. K. Speer, a Point Loma resident, four previously separate departments with more than 1,500 employees and an annual budget of over $43 million.

How does this save money? As one example, highway engineers used to maintain roads and adjacent ditches. Drainage ditches were main-

Speer says, from consolidation of personnel and fiscal management, using electronic data processing. One system will replace three systems. Speer notes that another gain is in simplicity which leads to efficiency.

"By breaking down departmental walls, we save the time of key people," Speer says. "This leads to greater efficiency and helps us keep up with the continually increasing demand for more services from the public."

The Public Works Agency is the first of eight similar administrative groupings proposed by Chief Administrative Officer Fred J. Morey for a major overhaul and reorganization of County government to be accomplished over the next several years. The eight new agencies would consolidate 43 County departments.

Purpose of an agency is to consolidate similar functions, reduce duplication of effort, realign functions between departments and provide common guidance and procedures.

The Public Works Agency consists of four departments: The Department of County Engineer, Department of Building Inspection, Department of General Services, and the Department of Sanitation and Flood Control.

Supporting these four main departments are the office of the Administrator and five new divisions. Two of the divisions have been relocated, one new one has been created, and two result from consolidations of activities of several departments. The five divisions are Communications and Electronics, headed by J. W. Colquhoun, of 9302 Hollyhook rd., Spring Valley, Fiscal and Personnel, Real Property, Airport Operations, and Park Development.

"We are just beginning to see results from this new approach to County government," Speer says. "There is no question about it. This type of approach will cut out duplication and lost motion and lead to greater efficiency. We will get more work, more services, and more results for every tax dollar."

The General Services Administration announced it will assign 76.64 acres of improved land to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for transfer to the Grossmont Union High School District.

Kanagy-O'Connor At F.B.I. School

Warren Kanagy, candidate for Sheriff of San Diego County in the upcoming November election, has returned from attending an FBI Retraining School, together with the present Sheriff Joe O'Connor.

O'Connor is not seeking reelection in November. The FBI refresher course is given periodically to graduates of the FBI Academy and is designed to update and advance new law and enforcement techniques and procedures. This year's sessions were held at Lake Tahoe, and were attended by FBI Academy graduates from throughout California.

Housing Bill Passes Senate

The Housing and Urban Development Act, which passed the Senate last week, includes two amendments introduced by Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.) that would make things easier for the small home owner.

One amendment would reduce the down payment on FHA homes by as much as a third; the other protects low income families from getting stuck with old, substandard FHA-financed homes.

In Yalta, a popular musical record cost between $30 and $50.

Local Firm Awarded Campsite Contract

Cleveland National Forest Supervisor Stanley Stevenson announced the awarding of a $32,298 contract to the Meri-Rich Corporation of Lemon Grove for reconstruction of the El Prado Group Campground road in the Mt. Laguna Recreation Area. Construction will begin approximately October 15.

This work is part of the planned expansion of the campground which will accommodate up to 400 campers.

Stevenson said, "This is the first campground in the Cleveland National Forest designed for use by handicapped people in addition to regular campers. Local representatives of the National Rehabilitation Association, Good Sports Club, and Blind Recreation Center, were very helpful in setting the design criteria."

The Forest Service plans on opening the new campground about May 15.

Miller Opens Office

East County campaign headquarters for Ed Miller for District Attorney will open Friday at 236 N. Second ave., El Cajon, with a reception for the public from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Miller will be at the reception, according to Joan Fraser, of Spring Valley, office manager.

A Cathedral at Naples, Italy, dates back to 1272.

Democrats Open Euclid Office

A united Democratic campaign headquarters has been opened at 1714 Euclid ave., San Diego, according to State Senator James R. Mills (D-San Diego).

Mills said the office will serve the campaign needs of Representative Lionel Van Deerlin (D-San Diego); Assemblyman Jesse Unruh, candidate for Governor; Representative John V. Tunney, candidate for U. S. Senate; Peter Chacon, candidate for 79th Assembly District; Wilson Riles, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction and himself.

Volunteers are welcomed to become involved in the united Democratic campaign and may receive further information by calling the office at 262-8660 or 262-8669.

Unruh Raps Reagan For Campus Policies

Jess Unruh appeared last week at the University of California, Berkeley, and warned that college faculty and administrators must be held accountable for disciplining radicals and maintaining order on campuses.

In a tough, hard-hitting attack on militants and radicals on the campuses, Unruh charged Governor Reagan with "playing into the hands" of the militants by doing nothing to prevent violence.

District Scouts Camp For Weekend In Spring Valley

Approximately 150 Boy Scouts of the Grossmont District of the County Boy Scouts of America, along with 20 adult Scouters, held a big campout south of the S.V. Animal Shelter, from the night of Oct. 2 until the morning of Oct. 4.

Purpose of the camp was to bring Scouting before the public.

State Overspent Flournoy Says

Houston I. Flournoy, State Controller, faced hard economic facts in announcing that state government costs exceeded revenues by $151 million during fiscal 1969-1970.

"Projections indicate that California will probably spend $144 million more than income this year. This means that the state may start fiscal 1971-1972 with little or no surplus except for the $241 million required by law to meet normal cash flow demands," Flournoy explained.

"Although a tax increase has been widely predicted, I do not believe it absolutely inevitable," he emphasized. Flournoy, who is seeking reelection in November, listed three variables which can serve to head off increased taxes.

First, the Gross National Product for 1971 will exceed one trillion dollars. Consequently, state general fund revenues could increase anywhere from $150 million to $350 million, depending on California's economic growth. This leaves a $200 million question mark for fiscal 1971-1972.

Secondly, skyrocketing welfare and Medi-Cal costs, now escalating at 16 per cent per year, must be controlled. "Finally, we must elect an economy-minded legislature and administration in November. Governor Reagan has vetoed more than $300 million in appropriations during the past three years. Without these economies a tax increase would already have been necessary," Flournoy explained.

Casper's Golf To Aid Boney

Supporters in the campaign to elect Henry Boney to the State Senate in the 40th District will have an opportunity to tee off for their candidate October 16.

The Loma Santa Fe Golf Course in Solana Beach will be the scene of a golf clinic and tournament, with entry fees going to the Boney campaign fund.

Golf pro Billy Casper, general chairman of the Boney Campaign, will be on hand for the event which includes a clinic at 12:30 p.m. and a "shotgun tournament" at 1:30 p.m.

The $50 entry fee includes green fees, carts, prizes, refreshments and a reception in the clubhouse.

Los Angeles has passed an anti-noise law restricting the use of loud speakers, and amplifying equipment on public as well as private property.

South Carolina has a million automobiles registered.

lic, said Bill Fitzpatrick, Area chairman. This was the first of any such an undertaking by a group of Scouts in the area.

Mostly second class Scouts, the group participated in trail courses, knife and ax lessons, map reading and lashing activities. On Saturday a hike by several of the Scouts took them to the top of Dictionary Hill.

Also on Saturday a Sea Scoutship attended the campout for the purpose of instructing the boys in lashing. Saturday night a campfire was planned and parents and other interested persons attended.

The Scouts and Scouters slept in sleeping bags placed in well arranged tents, lined up in military formation. The cooking was done outside over charcoal burners.

Early Sunday morning the group "broke" camp to return home in time for church.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department had three calls for Sept. 28. The first one, at 2:59 p.m., was mutual aid with La Mesa on a canyon fire at Mohawk and Keene; the second call was a needless one to Murray Hill; and the third call, at 6:53 p.m., was to 4015 Violet, where a car belonging to Mrs. Connie Nelmas of the same address was burned in the amount of about $40.

There was one rescue run for the week on Oct. 4 at 5:23 p.m. Firemen were called to Palm and Imperial ave., where two persons were injured in a motorcycle - automobile accident. The two were sent to Grossmont hospital.

Fireman Goes to War

Charles Lewis, a Lemon Grove fireman, who lives at 7935 Palm st., Lemon Grove, reports for induction into the Armed Services October 20.

Lewis, a regular of the Lemon Grove Fire Department for five months, is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High school. As a Key Club member, he once told Fire Chief Harold Hensley that he wanted to be a fireman. The Kiwanis club, of which Hensley is a member, encouraged Lewis to attend Miramar college at which he obtained his Fire Science degree.
